Course Overview

Wood Badge for the 21st Century is open to all Scout leaders. The course has been developed for Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Varsity Scout, Venture Scout, District, and Council leaders. The course focus is on developing leadership skills, not on out-of-door skills.

Learning Objectives

As a result of attending Wood Badge, participants will be able to:

- View Scouting globally, as a family of interrelated, values-based programs that provide age appropriate activities for youth.
- Recognize the contemporary leadership concepts utilized in corporate America and leading government organizations that are relevant to our values-based movement.
- Apply the skills they learn from their participation as a member of successful working team.
- Revitalize their commitment by sharing in an overall inspirational experience that helps provide Scouting with the leadership it needs to accomplish its mission on an ongoing basis.

The course follows these themes:

Living the Values

- Values, mission, and vision
- Aims and methods

Bringing the Vision to Life

Centennial Wood Badge

Come Join Us In This Adventure

2010 marks the centennial year of Scouting in the United States. What an incredible year in which to enjoy the Wood Badge experience.

Wood Badge for the 21st Century is advanced leadership training within a Scouting context. Everything you learn in Wood Badge can be applied in the business world, in one's personal life, as well as in Scouting. And, Wood Badge is great fun. There isn't anything else in Scouting like Wood Badge.

Wood Badge teaches contemporary leadership and team-building skills in a comfortable outdoor setting. Wood Badge is open to all adult Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Varsity, and Venturing leaders, district volunteers, council volunteers, and council professionals who have completed Basic Training for their position in Scouting. Wood Badge as an effective leadership development experience has been applauded by industry training professionals. The positive influence of Wood Badge on graduates is unparalleled in Scouting.

Best of all, Wood Badge is FUN! Please join us on the trail to a mountaintop experience in one of the greatest adventures in Scouting.
